

Midwest Datev Program

For Junior and Senior High School Students

November 10-12, 2006

Colombiere Retreat and Conference Center, Clarkston, Michigan

The weekend program will be a short version of the popular annual Datev Summer Program held in Pennsylvania, acclaimed by scores of participants as one of the most successful youth events.

The Program will include interactive presentations and instructions on faith-related topics, discussions of religious and current issues, Bible studies, short worship services, fellowship and recreational activities.

His Grace Bishop Anoushavan Tanielian, Vicar General, and Deacon Shant Kazanjian, director of AREC, will be the instructors and facilitators for this event.

The program will begin on Friday, November 10, at 5:00pm and concludes with the Sunday Badarak at St. Sarkis Armenian Apostolic Church, in Dearborn, Michigan, around 2pm.

Participation Fee: $110 (includes lodging, meals, seminar material and activities).

Space is limited. Registration is on a first come, first served basis.
